

Domaine Fourrey White

Domaine Fourrey - Chablis
White,Chablis

 100 % Chardonnay

HISTORY

Domaine Fourrey et Fils is a family estate of 20 hectares with 18 in production in the heart of Chablisian.The wine-making combines the Chablisian tradition with the modern techniques, in order to reveal local characteristic out of the Chardonnay grape.The estate is going through their fourth generation from father to son. Since 1992, Jean-Luc is in charge of the wine-making with his parents after his studies in Lycée de Beaune, where he obtained a degree in techniques winemaking. One of its major objective, when he came back after school, was to improve the sales of bottles. For ten years, his sister, Marie-José, is in charge of the customer relationships.

VINEYARD

The Chablis vineyard is located in the northern part of the Burgundy region. The richness of Chablis wines is the result of the combination of a unique soil and a specific climate. The vineyard is located between the villages of Milly and Fleys. Slopes exposed north-west. Clay chalky. Vines : Around 25 years old - 12 ha - Yield : 60 hl/ha

WINEMAKING

Maturity test are executed in differents plots to decide the best time to begin harvest-grape.
/nFermentation and breeding in stainless steel tank

PRESS

Previous rating

- 2014 89 Wine Spectator
- 2013 87 Wine Spectator
- 2013 87 Wine Advocate
- 2011 87 Wine Spectator
- 2011 88 Wine Enthusiast

Tasting notes

This Chablis has a good balance, a fresh and lively nose, a clean initial impact on the palate and a lingering flavor.

Food pairing

With its freshness and round minerality notes, it will be perfect on its own.

<https://www.terrisson-wines.com>