

Le Clos de Monsieur Noly White

Fabrice Larochette - Pouilly Fuissé
White,Pouilly Fuissé

100 % Chardonnay

HISTORY

The Larochette family is winegrowers from father to son for generations. The domain stretches over 10.70 hectares of vines, located in the southern Burgundy on the slopes of Chaintré.The domain has received the approval for a high environmental value . Fabrice Larochette strives to find the balance between tradition and modernity in his wine-making. According to him, the expression of terroir makes the highest quality wines. As the terroir makes the highest quality wines, he made the search of this terroir expression his daily focus.

VINEYARD

Located in Southern Burgundy on the slopes of Chaintré. The vines are planted on the slopes and at the foot of these two hills on clay-limestone soils of Jurassic origin mixed with scree from up-slope and, in one spot, schist. Vines : 40 years old -

WINEMAKING

Pneumatic pressing/nControlled stainless steel vats.

PRESS

Previous rating

2017 91 Wine Enthusiast

2015 93 Wine Enthusiast Cellar selection

Tasting notes

Elegant and full of charm, this white wine has a color ranging from pale to deep gold, flecked with green. Different families of aromas make up the bouquet : mineral notes (silex), almond and hazelnut, citrus notes (lemon, grapefruit, and pineapple), white fruits (peaches), bracken, acacia, breadcrumbs, buttered brioche, and honey.

Food pairing

Its aromatic power means it can also match spicy and perfumed exotic dishes such as couscous, fish tajines, or sweet-and-sour prawns. Sushi is also enhanced by its minerality.